

REPORT SWINDLER WHO WORKED HERE CAPTURED

REYNOLDS CASE MOVES SWIFTLY IN CIRCUIT CT.

Jury Secured Thursday Afternoon; Trial
Is Under Way.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the work of selecting a jury to try the case of Ezra Reynolds of Paw Paw, charged with the murder of his wife, was completed. The jury as selected consists of the following members:

Charles Pfeiffer, Ashton.
Frank Gasteretter, Sublette.
William Burdett, Bradford.
John Salzman, Jr., Dixon.
Clarence M. Stitzel, Nelson.
Robert Horst, South Dixon.
John Haggeman, South Dixon.
C. H. Ballstrom, Dixon.
Alfred Doolittle, Dixon.
William Remmers, South Dixon.
Harry Heiler, Dixon.
Edward Devine, Dixon.

The prosecution which is being conducted by State's Attorney Mark C. Keller, started the work of examining witnesses at once, following the swearing of the jury. Only a few witnesses were examined yesterday afternoon, the jury remaining in the court house all night and until 9:30 this morning, when the case was resumed.

The court room was well filled yesterday afternoon and again today. The defense has a large list of witnesses from Paw Paw and vicinity to examine, but with the progress being made early today, it was expected that the examination of witnesses would be completed today and arguments presented to the jury.

Defendant on Stand.

The state completed the examination of its witnesses about 11 o'clock this morning and Ezra Reynolds, the defendant, took the stand in his own behalf. He was subjected to a rapid fire of questions until the noon hour and then resumed the stand after the noon adjournment, completing his testimony shortly before 2 o'clock.

The defendant upon cross examination denied knowledge of having made several statements which were said to have been made by him at the time of the coroner's inquisition. He would not deny having made the statements, but in answer to many questions put to him by State's Attorney Keller, stated that he had no knowledge of having ever made such a statement, but would not deny them. He repeatedly answered the prosecuting attorney by saying that he had no knowledge or recollection of making the statements, even pertaining to the death struggle at their home in Paw Paw.

At 1:30, the cross examination was completed, the defendant leaving the stand, his daughter, Mrs. J. Coss, following him.

Marines to Re-enact Wilderness Campaign

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Wilderness, Va., Sept. 30.—Another phase of the Civil War Wilderness campaign was re-enacted by the coast expeditionary force of the Marine Corps.

The expeditionary force, which includes the fifth and sixth regiments of Belleau Wood fame, at the start of today's maneuvers, faced a series of redoubts prepared by the enemy having attained the dug-in positions where the night was spent after landing from an American "dec" anchor in Wilderness Creek. The problem today was to capture the enemy positions through a direct attack "over the top," and in the members of the fifth and sixth who served in France were counted on to show the results of that experience.

The maneuvers today were witnessed by a little group of those who as warriors of the union blue and of the Confederate gray fought over the same ground nearly three score years ago.

SOURCE OF LIQUOR AT ARBUCKLE PARTY BEING INVESTIGATED

Federal Probe Eclipses Preparations in Fatty's Trial.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
San Francisco, Sept. 30.—Preparations for the prosecution of Roscoe C. Arbuckle on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe today were overshadowed at least for a time by the federal investigation into the supply of liquor drunk by the guests at the comedian's Hotel St. Francis party.

Belief that his investigations had uncovered a gigantic liquor smuggling ring, operating with San Francisco as a base and which imports liquors of choice brand and quality only from Mexico and Canada, was expressed by federal prohibition director E. Forrest Mitchell. He is making his inquiry at the instance of Robert H. McCormick, special assistant to the United States attorney general.

Mr. Mitchell last night stated that he had a witness who delivered liquor to Arbuckle's suite at the hotel where Miss Rappe was taken ill during the comedian's party. The name of the man is withheld, and he is being guarded closely by federal operatives pending his going before a federal grand jury, it was stated.

Arbuckle left San Francisco last night for Los Angeles in company with his wife, his mother-in-law and defense attorneys. A Pullman car on the train was turned over to the Arbuckle party exclusively. Arbuckle will remain there it was announced, until summoned to San Francisco for trial on the manslaughter charge.

ANOTHER DEATH IN BOOZE PROBE OF CHICAGO COPS

Sensations Continue to Pile Up Following Charge.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 30.—While investigators delved into charges of Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris that half of Chicago's 5000 policemen were violators of prohibition laws, prohibition agents today continued to watch the lake front for "phantom" boats said to be trying to land liquor brought from Canada.

The Billy Eddy, a tugboat, said to be the vanguard of the liquor flotilla was seized last night at Michigan City, Ind. Its crew was held and 150 barrels of beer was confiscated.

Today the police were investigating the death of August Meyers, said to be an ex-convict and believed to have been connected with a rum running band. He died after appealing at a house near the lake front for aid. A bullet was found in his body.

Other policemen are being questioned today in an effort to determine the many ramifications of the alleged liquor plot in the police department.

FRANK PARLEY ON QUESTIONS HARDING WISH

U.S. Ambassador Tells Japs Purpose of Coming Meet.

Tokio, Sept. 29.—(By the Associated Press).—The coming Washington conference, Charles B. Warren, the American ambassador, said in speaking at a dinner given in his honor by the American-Japan society last night, would be a conference by common consent among sovereign states—a conference on which the United States was not seeking to impose its will.

"The president," he said, "is rather seeking a frank discussion with a view to bringing about as a concrete result a declaration of principles by the nations participating which in their practical application will prevent a clash of conflicting interests and remove the causes for armament."

"The way to bring about the permanent limitation of armament, is permanently to remove the reasons for armament. It will not do to meet and say they must limit armament and preserve peace. There should emerge from the conference a concrete basis for limiting armament."

"The nations about the Pacific are seeking an uninterrupted flow of commerce, the ties of which should grow increasingly stronger until finally comes that mutual understanding which alone is the foundation of continued peace."

Police Investigate Murder Near Joliet

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Joliet, Sept. 30.—Police today started an investigation of the death of James Hamilton, 62 years old, of Bicknell, Ind., who was found lying in a lonely road east of Joliet at midnight Wednesday.

A deep gash in the back of the head was the only mark on the body of the man. His pockets had evidently been rifled and police believe that he was the victim of holdup men. It is said that when he was last seen he had more than $100 in his pockets. There was no money on his person when found.

Charles Hamilton, a son, identified the body after it had been viewed by scores of persons in an effort at identification.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict that death was caused by a blow on the head from a blunt instrument.

Conferees Make Rapid Progress in Work
at Capital.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Sept. 30.—Tentative recommendations for providing work for the nation's jobless workers, estimated at 4,000,000, were completed today for submission to the national conference on unemployment.

The recommendations, drawn up by the conference steering committee on the basis of reports from the various other conference committees, were characterized as an emergency program and said to be based on the principle that unemployment is in the main problem for solution by the individual communities and the federal and state governments aiding in such ways as possible.

Declaration that the farmers of the nation, if permitted and aided, could help in relieving unemployment is made in a statement to the conference committee on statistics by W. L. Burdick of North Dakota, representing the American Farm Bureau Federation, who is a member of the conference.

The statement pointed out that if the buying power of the nation's farmers were increased manufacturing and all other lines of trade would be benefited and as a means of increasing the farmers' buying power recommendations were made as follows:

Reduction of freight rates; development of deep waterways connecting the great lakes with the ocean; elimination of middle men between the farmer and consumer; financing of crop movements and permission for the farmers to sell in a "protected" market if compelled to buy in a protected market.

Asked if he had anything to say, he replied in the affirmative, and as a shroud was adjusted in a clear voice started the song, "Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer Me?" He was singing when the trap dropped.

The chorus to song Wanderer chose is as follows:

"The long night through, I wait for you;
Old Pal, why don't you answer me?
My arms embrace an empty space;
The arms that held you tenderly;
If you can hear my prayer away up there;
Old Pal, why don't you answer me?"

J. BROWN WHO BOUGHT STOCK UNDER ARREST

Taken in Memphis for Passing Bad Check
at Dixon Sale.

Application for requisition papers to bring back to Dixon a man believed to be J. Brown, who is alleged to have adopted various other aliases in operating confidence games over the country is being asked of Governor Small by State's Attorney Keller today. The man believed to be Brown was arrested in Memphis, Tenn., Wednesday and was released on bonds, awaiting word from this city.

J. W. Larabee, of Earlville, secretary of the Red Polled Breeder's Association of Illinois and a director of the national association arrived in Dixon this morning from Memphis, where he brought about the arrest of the man believed to be Brown. Mr. Larabee's son was in charge of a car load of pure bred red polled cattle exhibited at a show in Memphis this week and recognized the stranger, who is said to have a large farm in Mississippi. The son immediately telegraphed word of his suspicion to his father and the older Larabee went to southern city on cue.

Identified Suspect.
The suspect was under constant surveillance and upon the arrival of Mr. Larabee, who stated this morning that he positively identified him as the man who operated here last January, caused his arrest. According to Mr. Larabee, the suspect was released from jail a short time afterward under bonds.

The mysterious J. Brown, it will be recalled, came to Dixon and was present at the annual sale of pure bred stock offered by the Red Polled Breeders association of Illinois, which was held at the Rock River Sales pavilion here, Jan. 12. After spending a few days here, during which time he became quite popular with breeders having cattle for sale, he purchased $3,320 worth of pure bred stock, shipped it to Chicago, where the cattle were sold, giving a worthless check in payment. He had represented himself to be a partner and buyer of pure bred stock for an official of the Santa Fe railroad company.

Stock Sold to Butchers.
When an investigation was started in an effort to trace the man and the stock, the carcasses were found hanging in cold storage in a Chicago packing house, where they were said to have been sold to a Chicago hotel company. The state association immediately started a search for J. Brown, employing the services of a nationally known detective agency. Several suspects had been followed up and the detectives are said to have brought about the apprehension of other men who were operating similar games in the middle west and eastern states. Mr. Larabee has made numerous trips to cities east of the Mississippi river for the purpose of identifying suspects, but J. Brown escaped arrest until this man, whom Mr. Larabee is confident is the hunted stranger, was arrested in Memphis Wednesday.

Sheriff Frank Schoenholtz, Mr. Larabee, officials of the state Red Polled association and commission and packing house representatives from Chicago will go to Memphis for the purpose of identifying the man arrested there Wednesday. The sheriff will stop at Springfield for the purpose of securing requisition papers before proceeding to Tennessee, where he will secure the signature of the governor of that state before going to Memphis to arrest the suspect.

WALTER WHITE

Corn Hits Lowest Mark in 18 Years; Wheat Also Drops

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 30.—Lack of support brought about declines in the wheat market today. Bears contended that from the poor foreign demand and from the reported offers of re-sale, it would seem the heavy exports of United States wheat during July and August were acting as a boomerang on prices. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 1 3/4 lower, with Dec. 1.22 3/4 to 1.23 3/4 and May 1.25 1/2 to 1.27 1/2 were followed by moderate losses all around.

Predictions were current that receipts northwest would increase during next week, consignment notices being much larger. The close was heavy 1 1/4 to 2 3/4 net lower with Dec. 1.20 1/2 to 1.20 3/4 and May 1.25 1/2 to 1.25 3/4.

Corn and oats were easier with wheat. Corn after opening unchanged to 1/4 lower including Dec. at 50 to 50 1/2 rallied a little, but then sagged again.

Oats started unchanged to 1/4 lower, Dec. 36 1/2 to 36 3/4 and later showed a setback for all deliveries. Higher quotations on hogs gave firmness to provisions.

Sept. delivery corn fell to the lowest level since 1903. The market closed nervous at 1/4 to 1/2 net decline with Dec. 48 1/2 to 49 1/2.

INDIANS' LAST CHANCE TODAY; MUST BEAT SOX

Yankees Now Have a Fine Lead; Won from Mackmen.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 30.—The Cleveland Indians today make a desperate effort to win a ball game that may decide their chances in the American League pennant race.

After being shut out by the White Sox by a 5 to 0 score in the first of a four game series, the Indians have left only one long chance to win the pennant and participate in another world's series championship.

To beat out New York in the scramble for the flag, the Indians must win every one of the remaining three games and the Yankees lose their remaining three. Two and a half games today marked the margin between the contenders.

After the masterly game pitched yesterday by Jimmie Kinnear it was generally expected that Manager Gleason would send Faber to the mound today. This offered little consolation to the tribe unless they are prepared to do more effective hitting and running than was the case yesterday.

It was reported today that Tris Speaker is to send Mails in the box to start the game.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have roaring, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength) and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoon four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stops dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal trouble of the ears, is hard of hearing or has head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Adv.

"Big Six," Winning Battle Against White Plague, Not There.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Joe McGinnity, the "Iron man" of the Giants years ago, was expected to start the pitching for the old-timers. Jeff Tesreau, another ex-Giant and George Bell, former Brooklyn pitcher, also were scheduled to hurl a few innings.

Other players with the old stars were to include Roger Bresnahan, catcher; Tenney, first base; Gilbert, second base; Dahlen, shortstop; Devlin, third base; "Red" Murray, rightfield; McCormick, centerfield; Kelley left field.

The regular New York-Boston game was to follow the exhibition contest.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Saranac Lake, N. Y., Sept. 30.—Christy Mathewson, for 15 years the idol of baseball fans in America, remained at Saranac Lake today, while thousands of baseball enthusiasts gathered at the Polo Grounds, New York City, scene of many of Mathewson's triumphs in baseball to pay tribute to him.

Mathewson, one of the greatest pitchers known to baseball, has been here for more than a year fighting the greatest battle of his life—that against tuberculosis. The hero of championship races in the National League and of world's series games, too, was anxious to attend the testimonial to him but he was persuaded to remain here. In spirit, however, he was there.

GIANTS CINCHED PENNANT; YANK TEAM "ALMOST"

McGraw Now Leads All Managers in Number of Wins.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Sept. 30.—The New York Giants are the 1921 National League champions. While they accomplished the feat mainly by their own efforts, it remained for the St. Louis Cardinals to give them the final shove that placed them beyond the reach of the Pittsburgh Pirates, no matter what happens in the remaining games.

New York was idle, but the Cardinals, on their own stamping grounds, walloped the Pirates twice yesterday and settled the league championship.

With the Giants "in," the Yankees are almost there. The latter team was successful against the Athletics yesterday, 5 to 0, without the aid of Babe Ruth who was suffering from grippe. It was said that Ruth probably would be well enough to return to the game today.

On the other hand, Cleveland, to win the pennant, must take all three remaining games with Chicago, while the Yankees lost their last three games.

By winning his seventh pennant for the New York National League club, Manager John J. McGraw tops all other managers in the number of championships.

He was tied at six with Manager Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics until he piloted the 1921 Giants out in front. The Giants won their first National League pennant under McGraw in 1904. They repeated the next year when they won their only world's championship. They won the league title in 1911, 1912, 1913 and 1917.

"THE CHERRY FLOWERS ARE WHITE"

Do you remember that old poem, "The lilacs are in blossom, the cherry flowers are white, I hear a sound below me, a twitter of delight, it is my friend the swallow," etc., that we used to repeat at school in the spring time. Well, this morning, Mrs. Charles Hanson of the Daysville Road, came to this office and handed us a bouquet of cherry blossoms and it made us think of spring and lilacs and the rest of it.

Mrs. Hanson has two cherry trees in the second bloom and if the frost waits long enough, she will probably see the fruit, but judging by the bracing weather of today the trees will not bring forth more fruit this year. But anyway, Wisconsin, the state boasting the second crop of corn, etc., is not any smarter than Illinois.

Tanlac Accomplishes Remarkable Results In Geo. H. Nickels Case

Prominent Wisconsin Man Says Tanlac Promptly Relieved Him of Bad Case of Stomach Trouble—Gains 27 Pounds and Feels Fine As a Fiddle.

It is an unquestionable fact that Tanlac is now being more widely endorsed by well known men and women than any other medicine on the American market. One of the latest to testify is George H. Nickels, well known lecturer, residing at 227 Wells St., Milwaukee, Wis.

"Tanlac has not only completely restored my health, but I have actually gained 27 pounds in weight," said Mr. Nickels in referring to the remarkable benefits he had derived from the medicine.

"For something over six months, my stomach was very badly disordered. I suffered terribly from indigestion and Dyspepsia. At times I would be in great distress and I would invariably experience an uncomfortable bloated feeling for hours after eating. I had no appetite scarcely and the little I ate would often make me deathly sick. My head ached until I felt like it would burst and I was so nervous I trembled like a leaf. When I got up in the mornings, I was so weak and dizzy, I couldn't trust myself to walk around and I just hurt all over."

"Tanlac has brought about a wonderful change in my condition for I am now enjoying the very best of health. My appetite is splendid. I relish my meals. Everything agrees with me perfectly. The nervousness, headaches and dizzy spells are all gone and I never have an ache or pain. I am only too glad to tell others about the wonderful good Tanlac has done. It has no equal."

Tanlac is sold in Dixon by Thomas Sullivan and by the leading druggists everywhere.—Adv.

RETURN FROM PROVIDENCE, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Fane have arrived home, after attending the Plumbers' convention held at Providence, R. I. They were treated royally by the members of the local union there. Among the amusements were a clam bake and ball at Crescent Park, a summer resort at Narragansett Bay given for all the delegates and wives. There were several sight seeing trips through the city of Providence, theatre parties and a banquet at Narragansett Hotel. The Local Union of Atlantic City, N. J., sent all delegates and their wives three boxes of candy each, as an invitation to hold the next convention in their city. Mr. and Mrs. Fane came home by way of Boston and while there took in the Pilgrims' Tour, which covers much of the interesting history of Boston. The trip afforded the opportunity of viewing the home of Paul Revere, he of the famous Midnight Ride; and the homes of Longfellow, Hawthorne, Lowell, Emerson, Alcott, and Webster. All the homes are in good condition and most all are occupied. They saw the Bunker Hill monument, crossed the Old North Bridge, and saw the Washington Elm, which is still alive. They passed Harvard University, Yale University, and many other places of interest.

WOMEN OF MOOSEHEART LEGION IN MEETING

The Women of Mooseheart Legion held a well attended meeting Tuesday evening in their hall.

Plans were also completed in regard to the Bazaar which the Moose will hold from Wednesday, Oct. 5th to Oct. 15th, in Rosbrook hall, and it was decided that the Women of Mooseheart Legion choose Friday, Oct. 14, as their night. They will have a booth at the bazaar. On the afternoon of Friday, Oct. 14, there will be a card party at the hall and in the evening the regular Moose program for the bazaar, it being designated as Mooseheart Legion night.

THE NEW HAIR ORNAMENTS

New York—No use trying to trace the influence of the new head dresses for women.

The most ornate, the most oriental, the most barbaric, well—the most anything superlative, characterizes the newest imported splendors, to perfect the evening costumes of our lady.

Jewels and feathers alone are no longer enough. Combinations astounding in their gorgeousness are the mode.

One evening barette shows a band of red velvet studded with diamond incircled rubies, while a larger ornament of the same stones holds a drooping red willow plume in place.

The barette has still another piece extending over the top of the hair.

These evening head dresses, of course, come in all colors from jade-green to black.

LADIES' SOCIAL CIRCLE, PRAIRIEVILLE

The Ladies' Social Circle of Prairieville held an all day meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Bert Hutton in Dixon.

There were present at the meeting fifteen members and five guests, and all spent a happy and busy day. The quilt the ladies were working on, was finished.

At noon the usual tempting scramble dinner was served and greatly enjoyed.

Plans were made to hold a fried chicken and noodle supper, Oct. 19. The next meeting of the Circle will be held in two weeks with Mrs. Herman Maas of Prairieville.

IF YOU ARE WELL BRED—

You will make it a point to call upon your friend who entertained you for several days at her summer camp or cottage, immediately upon her arrival home.

You will consider it your privilege to call upon the elderly woman whom you met at the home of a friend, if you wish to continue the acquaintance.

You will, if you are a resident of the locality, make the first call on an acquaintance who is staying at a hotel for a short period.

ST. AGNES GUILD MEETING

The members of the St. Agnes Guild held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the Guild rooms at St. Luke's church, and while the attendance was not as large as was hoped for, the meeting was one of interest and pleasure. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. M. L. Dysart and Mrs. Robert Sterling. They served tempting refreshments.

GUESTS AT W. H. RUPERT HOME

Mrs. William Gilbert, of Redding, Pa., accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fothergill here on their annual visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rupert. This is the first time that Mrs. Gilbert has visited at the home of her brother, Mr. Rupert. Mrs. Fothergill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert.

REAL EUROPEAN PERIL?

There are many financial experts who are declaring that the real peril of an international character is the possible financial collapse of central Europe. A financial expert, usually far from being an alarmist or pessimist, is quoted as saying that the steady decline in the value of currency among the nations in question seems to be leading rapidly to "complete demoralization of their ability to do business."

This financial man sees one promising ray of hope for saving of the situation, and this is the coming conference for reduction of armaments.
If this conference should prove to be the success that it is expected to be, it will relieve these central European nations—as well as the remainder of the world—of a great burden of expense, which will bring up the value of their paper currency. Indeed it is the very necessity, on the part of all nations, of such a lifting of armament burdens, that seems to insure the success of the coming conference in Washington. The world will cut armaments because it must.

Another possible palliative the same authority sees for prevention of such a European collapse is the stimulation of crippled foreign industry by American "financial penetration," and the patronage of foreign production wherever it can be done without harm to American industries — this latter presenting a most delicate problem itself.

But it is large reductions in armaments that present the most of promise.
If the world's expenditure for armament can be cut down by international agreement, currency inflation will be correspondingly reduced, tax burdens lightened and money released to feed starving European industry.

Citing some existing circumstances which point to this financier's fear, he refers to Czechoslovakia, whose money has suffered less depreciation than that of most of its neighbors.
You can get $203 in Czechoslovakian crowns for about $12 of our money.
Recently $288 in German marks have been worth only a trifle over $9, with Jugo-Slavian crowns of the same par value worth only $4, and a similar quantity of Hungarian crowns worth as little as $1.95. Two hundred dollars in Austrian money passes for less than 90 cents, and $200 in Polish money for less than 20 cents. Russian currency is still lower, but Russia is not in the same category. The nations mentioned all have legitimate, recognized governments and are "going institutions," professing responsibility for their national obligations.

In large sections of the old Austro-Hungarian empire, the national currency is said to have practically gone out of use, and the inhabitants are reverting to village tokens and the primitive method of barter.

Manifestly none of these nations, not even Germany, can offer any really dangerous competition while its finance is in such plight. It can obtain orders, because of the low value of its own debased currency enable it to quote, but it can not long fulfill its contracts and deliver the goods.

If so large a part of Europe does go under financially, it is needless to say that America is bound to suffer—and possibly just at a time when a revival of American prosperity would otherwise be expected. Here is reason why America should and will, in the coming conference, insist on drastic cuts in armament.

SENSELESS

Prominent men seem to delight in chopping down trees for exercise.
They destroy, in a few minutes, what took nature many years to create.
This is vandalism as much as burning ing houses, crippling machinery or destroying food.

Trees, racing toward extinction, belong to society. They are living things, with as much right as dumb animals. Destroying them wantonly is not far removed from dog beating.
Destroyers will be so measured by future generations, hampered by a lumber and shade famine and cursing us for our senseless destruction.

WINDFALL

Chance shakes its dice at least once for each of us. Thousands, now poor and without prospects, will be enriched by chance.

G. E. Bissonette, farmer near St.
Jean, Manitoba, Canada, was chopping wood when a swarm of bees settled in a nearby tree. He hastily turned a soap box into a hive. The bees stayed. In six years they have multiplied until Bissonette sits back and lets the bees earn his living for him. He has just marketed 20 tons of honey.

Has chance a similar windfall in store for you?

since his arrest. He has dropped from 255 pounds to 215.

There'd be mighty little movement leading forward to improvement. There'd be mighty little progress we would make.

But the wise grow clearer-witted by the failures they've committed. And they don't persist in errors very long.

And you'll find, in any season, they will always hark to reason. And will cheerfully admit it when they're wrong!

And existence somewhat fairer if, in all this world of error,

They will honestly admit it when they're wrong!

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS by Olive Roberts Barton

SPIKE STARFISH.
One day Nancy and Nick brought Tub Terrapin to Cap'n Pennywinkle. "He's ready to show us," they explained. "My!" said Cap'n Pennywinkle, "don't they take life easy! Nothing to do but eat and sleep, the lazy creatures!" "Oh, but just wait and see!" Tub told him. "Just you wait and keep very quiet." So they waited and kept quiet. Pretty soon, who should peer out of the weeds on the other side of the Pretty soon the fairyman and the Twins were swimming after Tub Terrapin to see why it was that Mr. Fisherman didn't like Spike Starfish. On they swam, on and on, until they came to the bay, not far from the place where the big net hung. Tubby led them to a seaweed grove where they where overweight is due to dropsy, heart disease, kidney trouble or diseases of the ductless glands—thyroid and pituitary—fatness is due to a lack of balance between the intake of food and the expenditure of energy.

The usual gain in weight with advancing years is not an advantage. It's a handicap and a sign of waning physical powers. One should endeavor to keep his weight at approximately the average for the age of 30, which is the period of full maturity.

A TIME TO DANCE

BY DR. WM. E. BARTON.

Now comes Henry Morgenthau and tells us why he became a politician, and why a good many other things happened or did not happen.

He says among other things, that Champ Clark and not Woodrow Wilson would have been nominated by the Democratic convention in Baltimore in 1912 and elected by the people in the following November if the Missouri delegation had not wasted 55 minutes in a snake-dance just when they should have been bunching their hats.

Champ Clark was a popular candidate, and much better known than Woodrow Wilson. No one had been singing about Wilson:

"Every time I come to town, The boys keep kickin' my dawg aroun', Makes no difference if he is a houn', They gotta quit kickin' my dawg aroun'."

You probably remember the hound-dawg song. Men have been nominated and elected president of the United States for reasons not much better than that some song might be sung in their honor.

But Champ Clark did not receive the nomination. The Democratic convention, unlike the Republican, requires a two-thirds vote to nominate.

Until 1912 there had been no instance, since that of Stephen A. Douglas in 1860, in which a man who got a majority of votes in a Democratic convention failed of the ultimate two-thirds.

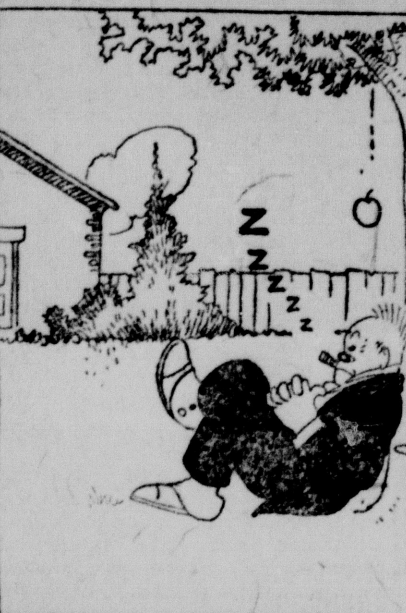

So the Missouri delegation indulged in 55 minutes of hilarity just at the wrong time. The tenth ballot gave Champ his majority. Had his followers given three cheers and forced another ballot at once, he might have demolished. One should avoid all so-called cures and drug methods for reduction unless prescribed by a physician. Massage is useless but diet and exercise are reliable. Fat people have less bodily surface in proportion to their weight than thin people, also fewer active cells.

For this reason they should have less fuel or energy foods which are sugars and starches. By cutting down this class of food and increasing the exercise a balance can be maintained. Habits should be formed that will automatically keep the weight down.

Food to be avoided by the fat man are: Milk as a beverage, sugars, fats, potatoes, salmon, lobster, crabs, sardines, herring, mackerel, pork and goose, nuts, butter, cream, olive oil, fat meats and water at meals. Meals should rather be light and frequent than hearty and infrequent, a little fruit on rising and a glass of hot water.

For dinner or lunch a choice may be had of chicken, lean meat, fish not cooked in fat, in moderate portions.

WHEN A WOMAN TELLS

By RUTH AGNES ABELING

CHAPTER LXII.

Tom—how did he happen to see me? It was like so many of the other things he had done. He always seemed to know just what I was doing and just where he could find me.

I thought for a second of the events of the afternoon before. There was a tinge of bitterness and then it was gone. I was too tired to care. Nothing mattered very much, it seemed. All I wanted was to rest.

I tried to sink more deeply into the pillows and go to sleep.

As the day wore on and I awakened again, I found myself wanting to talk. Lila had come and was standing looking out of my window. I spoke to her.

"What happened while I was away?" I asked, remembering Lila's trouble and hoping it had been brought to a happy solution. "Nothing," she said. And as she came toward me I could see tears glistening in her eyes.

"I've done nothing but hope, dear—I'm trying to believe that he'll come back and I'll have my chance—but I'm afraid I won't."

She sat down on the bed.

"I wonder sometimes what has happened to the house of Ames. It used to be a place of happiness, but now it seems nothing but tragedy comes to it."

"It's just what we've brought on ourselves—we've each been so thoughtless," I said.

And then I asked the thing which had been in my mind since I first awakened.

"Had Tom called to asked about me?"

"Certainly—he almost got me out of bed!" Lila laughed. "Why didn't you tell me that Tom is your—side kick!" she finished with a word she had picked up somewhere on the street.

"But he isn't," I managed to say. And then turned my face to the wall.

I had a fateful feeling that Tom was mine after all, but I couldn't account for the circumstances which had come recently. They confused me and made me feel uncertain.

"I wouldn't fight it, Helga—and don't throw your happiness away as I have done!" Mrs. Ames was very gentle.

I had been warned so much about Tom and so many people had insisted that I marry him that I began to feel superstitious about him. Perhaps it all meant that I should not have him after all.

WHEN A WOMAN TELLS

The telephone rang.

Mrs. Ames hurried to the extension in her room.

I heard her talking excitedly. Something had happened or was about to happen, and I knew from the tone of her voice that it could be nothing which would bring unhappiness.

"Come just as soon as you can," I heard her say and then the receiver clicked into place.

"It was Tom," she announced, coming back to my room. "He is coming right out, and think of it, Helga—he says he has good news! Something about John!"

I should have to face Tom now probably—Tom in the role of my rescuer and with the thought of that other thing in the back of my brain.

I wanted to believe in him, but I couldn't as things stood. Should I tell him what I heard Grace say behind the closed door of his private office, or should I let the thing drag on?

Keefe, Sterling's Quarter, Broke Bone in Ankle in Practice

Sterling, Ill., Sept. 29—Gloom was cast into the football camp of the Sterling Township High school last night by the elimination of "Doc" Keefe, captain of the team, from further participation in the sport this season. Keefe sustained a fracture of a bone in the right ankle while going down the field to recover a punt. The cleats on his shoes became fastened in the dirt and in attempting to swing his body around quickly a small bone in the ankle was fractured. He will be out of the game for the remainder of the season.

Keefe was one of the most consistent ground gainers of the back field last year and his loss will be keenly felt. In addition to being a splendid offensive player, "Doc" is a student of the game and was being groomed by Coach Eades to pilot the team at quarter this season.

Predicts Coldest Winter in 25 Years

Fayette, Iowa.—The coldest, longest and stormiest winter within the past quarter of a century. This is the prediction of William Mosgar, who has been prognosticating weather more or less since he was a boy—and he is now 72 years old. To prove his statement he calls attention to the undigested fact that migratory birds have already left for warmer climates, a full month ahead of regular time.

"The birds know," he said, "and their wonderful instinct prompts them to leave. They realize winter is com-

GRACE UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Rev. C. G. Unangst, Pastor
The day of prayer observed on Wednesday was a time of blessing. We observed it because we believe that, "The prayers of God's saints are the capital stock in heaven by which Christ carries on His great work on earth." One lady said she could not attend the meeting during the day but she spent an hour in prayer at home. God will not fail us. Sunday will be a day of far more than ordinary interest. We have announced it as rally day, and a very large attendance at all of the services is expected.

Farm Bureau Will Buy Potatoes for Distribution Here

Two experience potato buyers have been appointed by the Illinois Agricultural association to purchase potatoes this fall for county farm bureaus. The buyers are now in the field comparing price quotations.

This is the first time that co-operative potato buying on such a scale has been attempted. The Illinois Agricultural association will act as a medium between buyers in the field and the county farm bureaus.

The Lee County Farm Bureau and at least eight of the ten farmers' elevator companies of Lee county are planning to supply the best quality of potatoes to their patrons at the lowest possible price. One carload of U. S. No. 1 Early Ohio potatoes have already been ordered for one of the elevator companies. A meeting of representatives was held at Amboy Wednesday evening of last week to perfect plans for distributing potatoes. A committee is going into the matter fully and will soon make announcements.

China Protests Japan-U. S. Pact About Yap

Peking, Sept. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Agreements between the United States and Japan relative to the future status of the Island of Yap as reported in press dispatches constitute a violation of China's sovereignty and the principle of national equality, says an identic note transmitted to the American and Japanese legations by the Chinese foreign office. The Chinese note maintains the American-Japanese agreement cannot authorize Japan to lay a cable between Shanghai and the Island of Yap unless she secures the consent of China.

The Chinese government takes this stand on the ground that Germany's rights to this cable lapsed when China declared war, and that Germany has not been succeeded by an other power.
